

Curriculum Evaluation Tool

	Yes	No	Notes
Children's Needs
Does the curriculum offer educational opportunities for all the learning styles (visual, auditory, kinesthetic)?
Does the curriculum involve children in the learning process?
Are there opportunities for self-discovery?
Is the curriculum thought-provoking for children?
Are graphics and media appealing and welcoming to kids?
Will it capture children's interest?
Are the lessons, language, and activities age-appropriate?
Are the questions open-ended, helping kids think for themselves instead of reciting facts?
Spiritual Growth
Will this curriculum provide children with the spiritual formation they need to grow in Christ?
Are the lessons based solidly on the Bible?
Are the lesson points clear and biblically solid?
Do the lessons emphasize understanding of relevant life principles based on biblical truths?
Are there opportunities for children to apply biblical principles?
Are there service opportunities connected to the truths of the lessons?
Volunteers' Needs
Are the lesson plans easy to understand?
Are there theological insights for the novice teacher?
Will volunteers feel successful and enjoy using this curriculum?
Are lessons neither supply nor preparation-intensive?
Goals and Objectives
Does the curriculum's philosophy fit our mission?
Does the curriculum fit our theological emphasis?
Do the objectives of the curriculum help us meet our goals?

Features & Benefits

Add your own "must haves" list, whether that includes videos, digital versions, take-home pages, and so on.
